

A Christmas Carol by Charles Dickens was one of the greatest influences in reviving the old Christmas traditions of England. It has met instant success and is critically acclaimed, and has remained popular. It is also one of the most loved and most filmed Christmas stories of all time as it was adapted several times on stage, film, opera and other media. The book packs an emotional punch and a moving tale of redemption sums up the real meaning of Christmas.

The book includes original illustrations, a free audiobook link for download (which can be downloaded and listened using a PC/Mac) at the end of the book and an active/navigable table of contents.
