

This is a collection of school-based everyday situations to stimulate thought and discussion for teachers in secondary (11-16) schools. It contains 20 scenarios about children with Aspergers Syndrome, with questions and potential answers or opinions. Recommended for teachers and professionals, staff allocated to any pupils who have needs related to ASD and of course parents. Scenarios include: school trips, making friends at the start of term, adjusting to different classrooms, school dinners, bad language, and more. With thanks to Miss Amanda Jayne Munn for her contributions; and the Facebook community.
