

(...) CONCERNING THESE STORIES. THE longer stories in this book are called Fairy Stories, because that is the name by which such tales are always known to children ; and yet only a very few contain any direct reference to fairies. The most of them have to do with talking animals and with strange incidents and transformations such as have always delighted the childish fancy. They have been drawn from a variety of sources; and liberty has been taken to make such changes in the narratives as seemed most necessary to adapt them to the understanding and needs of the children of our own time and country.
