

La presente edition permet de decouvrir le talent et l'art de la composition du celebre predicateur populaire Olivier Maillard (1430?-1502), franciscain de l'Observance, dont les predications ont connu une large audience et dont les sermons ont ete diffuses tres tot par l'imprimerie. La Passion douloureuse unit etroitement les parties de la Passion et de la Messe; elle cree un ensemble indissociable et un texte d'une complexite importante. Maillard part de l'idee d'une pastorale de l'interiorisation, d'un approfondissement de valeurs. Celles-ci risquaient, a l'epoque de la pre-reforme, de ceder leur place a un accomplissement purement exterieur ne visant que l'exactitude du rituel et denue de toute profondeur spirituelle. Apres l'edition Bonhomme de 1552, la presente edition est la premiere a proposer le texte integral de la Passion douloureuse et de ce fait a respecter le caractere original de l'ouvrage de Maillard.
