

Most Christians have a good understanding of what marriage should be. And most Christians have a clear understanding of what the Bible has to say about marriage. Yet many Christians struggle to experience joy and fulfillment in their own marriage. What began with high hopes has fallen into a rut, or even what started as a dream has become a nightmare. The need is not more teaching about marriage; the need is help in putting into practice what we already know. The aim of this book is to make a real difference, not offer glib solutions.
