

Hereâ€™s a new lampoon from Sandy Oitzinger, this time with a wider scope than her previous lighthearted aims at the legal community. One Hundred and One Reasons Not to Steal a Husband is written for wives like Oitzinger, her unmarried sister feminists who have cast can eye on a husband or two, and for husbands who want to show their wives how great they are when you think of what â€œsome husbandsâ€• may be capable. Oitzinger offers this disclaimer: â€œThis E-book is a work of fiction. Similarities between any members of the authorâ€™s immediate family and â€œsome husbandsâ€™ depicted herein are strictly coincidental.â€• Oitzinger allows while the book is not exactly a composite, she hopes it will resonate with all husbands and all wives and all partners. In fact, she hopes readers see it as she does, as rather a love song to spousal persons of all stripes and flavors across the globe.
