

Cat and Emily's mother have gone. They haven't left a trace behind. Not one clue of where they might be and while Emily tries to pretend that she doesn't care, deep down it hurts that her own mother would rather run off with her step daughter than stay home with her real one. After all, they gave up a life at a really good barn to take care of her and now it looks like all that was for nothing. But Emily has other things to focus on. The team show is in a few weeks. It is their last chance to get a spot in the final and Emily doesn't want to let Duncan, the team coach, down, especially after he helped her so much. She's also still trying to do right by all the horses at Second Chance Farm, helping Faith with Falcon, training Sunny and trying to find someone to lease Hashtag. But when a trip to Fox Run to drop off a horse turns into something else entirely, Missy and Emily will finally have the fight that has been brewing all along, leaving the fate of Socks hanging in the balance. And a horse that Emily thought she left in good hands has disappeared. What has happened to Four and can Emily get him back before it's too late?
